- Introduction of new run – Twilight cruise – the first cruise will take place on the 9th November meeting at 6.30pm for a 7pm depart this will be a cruise around town and finishing at the same place it started from. When finished members will be welcome to go on for a coffee etc if they wish. This event will have a constant date being held on the Friday night following the Redhill Night. Meeting place will be at Murray St coloured fountain in Central Park.

- Club Facebook page – Colleen Cooling our Electronic Media Officer has been very busy and has created an All Classic Motor Club CQ Inc Facebook page with a group to join attached to this page. The group page is for members only the ACMC page is viewable by the public but the group page is only viewable by the club members. Please sign up if you haven't already. It will allow us to get messages out to club members in a hurry. Emails will also be sent out for those that are not on Facebook.
- Storage Unit – Kelvin and Christine Hansen have been very generously housing the club trailer for a number of years, it has now become impossible for them to continue doing so. The committee made the decision to change the club's storage unit and get a bigger one that will house all the club's stuff including the trailer. A small working bee was held yesterday 20th October to move everything across into the new unit.
- The sad passing of member Colin Vardy –Thank you to the club members that went along to show their respects at Colin's funeral. We had a very good representation from the club. Mick delivered the sad news that ex-club member Brian Dobby has also passed away.
- Merchandise. See Jodie.
- Unidentified membership payment – we still have one payment that was deposited into the bank account at the end of August that has not been identified as it has no name attached to it. It is a membership card could you please contact Brenda 0487 388 485
- Membership Draw member number 578 Bruce and Christine McPherson , sorry you must be here to win it.
- Mick introduced Dion and thanked him for inviting us to his business and putting on the very impressive sausage sizzle. Dion put on a lucky draw prize for the club.
- Mick let the club members know that one of our members David Chambers is once again fighting off another bout of cancer, he asked that all members hold David in their thoughts wished him all the best to fight this one off for a very positive outcome.
